ANNEX 1 — PERSONAL DATA PROCESSING NOTICE

Competition: 33rd International Cartographic Conference (ICC 2027) — Best Early-Career Research Awards (the “Competition”).

1. Data Controller

The Competition Regulations identify the organisers as a consortium comprising the Association of Polish Surveyors, the Faculty of Geography and Regional Studies at the University of Warsaw, and the Faculty of Geodesy and Cartography at the Warsaw University of Technology (the “Consortium”). The data controller is the University of Warsaw, Krakowskie Przedmieście 26/28, 00-927 Warsaw, Poland; telephone: +48 22 55 20 000.

2. Data Protection Officer (DPO)

The University of Warsaw DPO can be contacted at iod@adm.uw.edu.pl in matters concerning personal data processed by the University of Warsaw and the exercise of rights relating to those data. The DPO does not handle general enquiries about the Competition.

3. Purposes of and legal bases for processing

Personal data may be processed, to the extent necessary, for the following purposes in connection with the Competition:

- registering applications and communicating with applicants;
- checking eligibility, including academic qualifications, submitted supporting documents and any requests for exceptions following career breaks;
- receiving and assessing scientific posters and supporting the work of the Competition Jury;
- organising the poster exhibition, verifying that the participant delivered the accepted oral presentation, and administering awards and certificates;
- announcing results and, where applicable, publishing participants’ names, affiliations, competition posters, photographs or interviews through ICC 2027 communication channels;
- establishing, exercising or defending legal claims and, if legally required, meeting tax or accounting obligations relating to prizes.

Where processing is based on consent, that consent may be withdrawn at any time by writing to early_careers@icc2027.org, without affecting the lawfulness of processing carried out before withdrawal.

4. Data retention period

Personal data will be retained for the period necessary to administer the Competition and for any additional period required by the confirmed legal basis, applicable record-keeping requirements, or the establishment, exercise or defence of claims.

5. Data recipients

Access to personal data will be restricted to persons authorised to perform Competition-related tasks, potentially including authorised personnel of the relevant organiser(s), members of the international Competition Jury, and service providers acting on instructions of the controller.

6. Transfers of data outside the European Economic Area (EEA)

The use of online application and poster-submission services, and access by persons located outside the EEA, may involve transfers of personal data to third countries.

7. Rights connected with data processing

Subject to the conditions of the GDPR, data subjects may request access to and a copy of their data, rectification, erasure or restriction of processing. Depending on the legal basis and circumstances, they may also have the right to object to processing and the right to data portability. Where consent is the lawful basis, it may be withdrawn at any time. Data subjects may lodge a complaint with the President of the Personal Data Protection Office (Poland).

8. Obligation to provide data

Providing the data necessary to apply to and take part in the Competition is a condition of participation; without those data, an application may not be processed. Any additional, optional data and the consequences of not providing them must be clearly identified in the application form.

9. Publication and rights of other persons

The Competition Regulations envisage online publication of submitted posters and certain information about participants. A poster may include the personal data and copyright-protected contributions of co-authors or third parties. The arrangements for publication, attribution and any permissions must be made clear to applicants separately from this privacy notice.

DECLARATION AND PERMISSION CONCERNING THE COMPETITION ENTRY

Applicant's full name: .....

Title of accepted ICC 2027 submission / competition poster:
.....

I acknowledge that I have been provided with the personal data processing notice for the ICC 2027 Best Early-Career Research Competition.

Where the processing of my personal data for a specified purpose is based on consent, I give that consent as described in the relevant application-form statement. I understand that I can withdraw it for the future by contacting early_careers@icc2027.org.

I confirm that I am entitled to submit the poster for the Competition and that any third-party materials and contributions of co-authors are used with the permissions required for the intended exhibition and publication.

I authorise University of Warsaw to display my submitted scientific poster during ICC 2027 and, subject to the licence terms to be approved below, to reproduce and make the poster available on the official ICC 2027 website and associated official communication channels for documenting and promoting the Competition.
